ESPN 850 WKNR AND CLEVELAND'S AM 1540 KNR2 EXTEND RELATIONSHIP WITH THE OHIO STATE BUCKEYES RADIO NETWORK

CLEVELAND – ESPN 850 WKNR and Cleveland's AM 1540, Cleveland's only all sports stations, have extended their relationship with the Ohio State Radio Network through 2012, WKNR General Manager Keith Williams announced.

“Given the enthusiasm that exists in Cleveland and the surrounding area for Ohio State football and basketball, I cannot imagine a better fit for the Ohio State Radio Network than WKNR Radio,” said Ohio State Athletics Director Gene Smith. “WKNR is a sports giant in Northeast Ohio with superlative sports programming throughout the day. All of us at Ohio State are thrilled to have WKNR as part of the network.”

“As the Ohio State Buckeyes continue their winning traditions on the field and on the court, we are pleased to offer Northeast Ohio Buckeye fans Ohio State Radio network and local programming to our fans and partners,” Keith Williams said.

ESPN 850 WKNR and Cleveland's AM 1540 KNR2 will air Ohio State football and men's basketball games through 2012. In addition, ESPN 850 WKNR and Cleveland's AM 1540 KNR2 will air ancillary Ohio State programming, including The Jim Tressel Show, The Thad Matta Show, Buckeye Game Day, Buckeye Wrap Up, and Buckeye Roundtable.
