FM 100.5 ESPN IS RADIO HOME FOR MADISON MUSTANGS

MADISON, WI – FM 100.5 ESPN is the new radio home of the Madison Mustangs.

FM 100.5 ESPN is proud to announce their new partnership with the Madison Mustangs, members of the Ironman Football League. All 5 remaining regular season home games and playoffs will be broadcast live on WTLX (100.5 FM) and online at ESPNMadison.com.

“FM 100.5 ESPN is happy to enter into a partnership with the Madison Mustangs,” WTLX general manager Ken Rovak said. “We are excited to add them to our local play-by-play line up.”

In addition to airing the games, FM 100.5 ESPN will be hosting pre-game tailgate parties before all home games at Club Tavern in Middleton.

“We are thrilled to be partnering with FM 100.5 ESPN for the current Madison Mustangs season,” Mustangs Owner and Head Coach Robert J. Gingras said. “Our exciting brand of play coupled with ESPN's commitment to local football will provide lots of excitement for our current and future fans.”

The Mustangs regular season is underway and more information is available at madisonmustangsfootball.com.

FM 100.5 ESPN's Jim Rutledge will be the broadcast voice of Madison Mustangs Football. Jim can also be heard weeknights at 6pm, live on FM 100.5 ESPN and www.espnmadison.com.
